conducted by Sheriff Elizabeth, Damon discovers the connection between Isobel and Alaric. The story also revolves around the inhabitants. She's been using it and planning it all the time! When Mason said he had acquired the stone, the two kissed.PAGE 23In yet another thrilling episode of The Vampire Diaries... The plot thickens. We still don't know why Katherine wants it, but she seems very upset because the enemy now possesses it. He said the alcohol helped suppress his cravings, but the guy wasn't himself. As Stefan simply said: I am a vampire. Meanwhile, Tyler is beginning to realize that there is something extraordinary about Uncle Mason. In the sequels, Elena discovers that she is descended from Katherine, who has returned with a plan to fight the trio. It also means difficulty controlling her impulses, since she takes a bite of Matt during a make-out session. He said John was full of bullshit because Katherine was BFFs with Pearl. He brings a human to Damon and he bites her neck, forcing her to bleed. The answer lay in the diary of Gilbert's ancestors, which was now in Alaric's hands after Jeremy gave it to him. That's gonna get worse pretty soon. The Salvatore brothers go to the site of the bargain. Is Katherine really telling the truth that she came back to town for Stefan? However, we still do not know how Katherine died or left. Best Friend Her Bonnie Bennett (Katerina Graham), Caroline Forbes (Candice Acola) and her friend in common Tyler Lockwood (Michael Trevino). But Emily would not do that. But back to Stefan and Elena. It turns out that a witch named Lucy launched a spell that connected Katherine and Elena. Why did she leave Damon near Caroline, considering how dangerous he is? When Alaric attacks Damon, the vampire carefully stabs the man, then sits back so he can see him bleed at death. When she comes up there, Grass simply let her enter. She had simply ordered them to do so. On the road, a man (Damon?) She suddenly appeared in front of Elena's car. Damon lock Katherine in the library. In other news: Jeremy read Elena's daily and now seems to know everything. Of course, it can be a sensitive guy: Damon comes back to the bar and kills Bree for betraying him. She entered, killed the two deputies and confronts. In less exciting news, Caroline and Matt had problems because she made some snobbish comments. While they are going to clandestinity, Anna is pretending to like Jeremy (away from the party, in the forest) when Ben comes behind and knocks him down. type. "A Underground, Grams and Bonnie do their magic and open the tomb, but Damon takes Elena with him inside because he's afraid they'll close on him otherwise. What is the question now? It's Jeremy, however, and he ends up telling Damon his plan without actually doing anything. She ended up in England. Jeremy is at home, depressed by Anna's death. She comes in and cries. He was met in the warehouse by Alaric, who had a stake he trusted with when Logan attacked him. The story of the film takes place in the late 17th century. As it turns out, Jeremy's father kept a box full of family artifacts. However, Stefan soon goes to visit his father to say goodbye and discovers a surprising fact: his father was the one who shot him and Damon. It was always Stefan soon goes to visit his father was the one who shot him and began to sip his blood. The town is ruled by descendants of the original founding family known as the "Founding Council." A When a guy bumped into Elena on the dance floor and was an idiot about it, Stefan hypnotized him and said she's lying to herself, there's something between them. She wakes up in a cemetery, following the sight of a woman who says, "I'm coming." Page 4Sit down and be comfortable: A lot has happened this week! Bonnie. Bonn Elijah appeared outside and broke the unique window. They spoke as if they were separating because Katherine's presence made things very difficult / dangerous when Elena came out crying. She carries him back to the car ... When Elena comes home, Stefan finally has a chance to talk to her. What does this mean for savers? As soon as this happened, Emily became Bonnie again. Stefan discovered that he was really Katherine and asked Bonnie to help him and Damon seizing the werewolves can not be killed with metal. She could not care less with his mourning for her. They drag him into the tomb. We're going to the tomb! Grandma, Bonnie and Stefan arrive first, soon followed by Damon and Elena. As an offer of peace, it gives something to Damon; An invention made by John Gilbert. As a result, the brothers ceased their attack and practically just left with Katherine in the room. Elena says her friendship is over, which annoys Damon because she used it on the trip to get more information about Katherine. The newest recruit of them, Harper, settled on sitting and following orders, but the grumpy Frederick and his girlfriend Bethanne. This discovery has a great impact on Matt, which takes the new to the same time; And in Jeremy, who basically admits to Anna that he wanted to be transformed because he thought Vicki was a vampire and wanted to join her. Elena told him that she loved him and refused to be stronger. - We also discovered that Emily's spells made it possible for Katherine and Emily to walk in the sunlight. As Mason later told Damon, he has now made an enemy PAGE 22What an amazing and action-packed episode! All these developments fell during it... Let's go over what happened: "Bonnie, Jeremy, Damon, and Stefan planned to kill Katherine. Sheriff Forbes enters, shoots Lexi with vervain, but Lexi escapes the police,

Their natural enemy is the vampire and, according to legend, a werewolf bite can kill a vampire. Elena and Stefan are at Gilbert's, when the latter goes down the stairs to get aspirin and discovers that someone named Anna is there with Jeremy, just in the bathroom. They could not convince her not to do so. Eventually, thanks to a background check holds the outside and sends to see the sheriff. Eventually, Stefan puts on the ring and hugs Elena. - We also see Mason trying to chain himself because it's a full moon. Damon made Stefan promise not to tell their father about Katherine, that both brothers seemed to know she was a vampire and seemed to be sleeping with her. His ring protected him. After his mother's embarrassing crushing accident at the party, Matt ordered her to leave her life. But Elena also said she loved Stefan and Damon responded by attacking Jeremy. When he showed a reaction, Forbes knew what was happening. But her witch sense fades and she knows he's a vampire. Damon buries the body of the guy Caroline killed, but when he returns for carnival, Bonnie unleashes a crazy spell, paralyzing him on the floor while drenching him on the floor while together, and he gets up! Does he have vampire blood in his system? - In the early morning hours, he appears in Elena's room and kisses her. Bored, he really fed her blood, after draining so much of her Meme It IT before. Now Bonnie can't even get it out, not even when Bonnie tries to rip it out of her neck because Damon demands it. Stefan wanted answers! Using a series of flashbacks, here's what Katherine revealed: "She made a deal with George Lockwood in 1864 that she would help him round up the 27 vampires in Mystic Falls and burn them in the church. As Elena begins to see a slightly softer side to Stefan's brother ââ€TM Bree makes a call. This is the main lesson learned in this episode: Stefan forced Damon to turn. They were all alive (and hungry!) down there. Later that night... He dragged her into the basement, tied her up and rubbed vervain on her. - Jeremy told Tyler that he knows about the Lockwood Curse. Jenna also gives Elena the address of Trudie Peterson, Isobel's former best friend. That's what we learned: "In Bulgaria, in 1490, Catherine gave birth to a daughter. - The main focus of the episode was Logan's return as a vampire. Both brothers show affection for Elena, mainly because of their resemblance to their former lover, Katherine Pierce. Isobel also confronts Alaric to say goodbye and forces him to forget her. Bethanne killed him, but the Salvatores pushed Frederick away, who runs away when he realizes he can't take them both. Damon can't help himself now, and he also feeds. Now free, the group decided to really help Damon open the grave and leave only Katherine because otherwise he would never cease to be, well... - That was her plan all along, I think Klaus needed a human gangster to sacrifice himself. But Caroline heard what was happening and came to the rescue. Did anyone else think that would really work? Bonnie was recovering, the doors were locked, some really funky things happened and when Elena and Caroline arrived at Bonnie it was clear what had Emily had possessed her! Bonnie it was clear what had Emily had possessed her! Bonnie was recovering, the doors were locked, some really funky things happened and when Elena and Caroline arrived at Bonnie it was clear what had Emily had possessed her! Bonnie it was clear what had been had to Stefan and Damon for a bit: In an attempt to learn why Damon wanted the necklace so badly, Stefan tried being a fun brother. At a benefit for Founder¢ÃÂs Day, he smugly implies to Alaric that he killed Isobel. The lights flickered on and off, the candles blew up a bit and Bonnie's necklace was somehow transported to another room. Compared to the rest of the show? - Late in the episode, he and Rose slept together. She says this isn't her plan. Earlier, Mason had been asking if he¢ÄÄÄd seen an heirloom moonstone in the mansion. - Bonnie also learned the moonstone was hidden in a well. Emily simply cast witch spells on his devices so he would think they were his doing. Stefan tries to clean her up and tells her she will have to fight the urge to kill. In exchange, Damon would make sure Emily's family remained safe, which is why he couldn't do anything to Bonnie. Before John sets the building on fire, he stakes Anna. In other storyline developments: - Pearl has dinner with Mayor Lockwood. In a nice moment, Damon said he believed her - but don't make him regret it. - Late in the episode, Katherine is hooking up with Stefan and goes to bite him... The episode ended with Elena revealing all to Bonnie and with Jenna getting another, scary surprise: there was a knock on the door. What does she mean? She tries to learn as much as she can about him and Mystic Falls. One night, on May 23, 2009, he overheard a car crash off a bridge. She was heartbroken, as you might imagine. He conducted a bit of research to determine why and came up with one important fact: Elena was adopted. She had gotten into his dreams. Anna witnesses this, but she is told by Emily that she has a plan to protect them. But her father secretly slipped Vervaine and Katherine is captured. Jeremy asked what the problem was and Tyler said he did not know. The exchange is done. Other residents of the city, namely Elena's newest brother, Jeremy Gilbert (Steven R. when they turn to look for him, however, the daily is gone. The episode ends with her telling Stefan that She believes he will never harm her, but let's go, they can not really be together. His disappointed family immediately took her child and banished Katherine. It does not look like this Damon. Jenna opened When Damon discovers that Stefan was kidnapped, he asks for help to Alaric because he was not invited to the house where the vampires are residing. Back to the present day, when Elena discovers this, she understands why Stefan does not He wants to live: Guilt for all the people Damon killed. It's not clear. At the beginning of the episode, he delivers to the Sheriff Forbes a box of verbena, as he is still trying to throw the suspicion away from himself when it comes to who in the city is a vampire. He says Katherine was from Europe and her original name was Katerina Petrova. odnitsissa odnitsia He's bleeding. He stumbles out of the tomb as we fade into the black... Page 10Jenna tells Elena that she has discovered the identity of her biological mother. Isobel Flemming of Grove Hill, Virginia, handed her over for adoption while she was in high school. Damon says he can help her, but his plan to kill her is thwarted by Stefan and Elena intervening at the last second. Stefan said he remembers her of the civil rights movement in the city and the two came to an understanding: they are both on the same side, they can help each other in the future, but Sheila will always put her family first. When Katherine laid her hands on the item, she fell, paralyzed. Damon enters and takes Stefan into the basement. Helping to start a riot of several types, Frederick and some friends attacked Stefan in the woods. - Now for the main things: Bonnie tried to get rid of her necklace, but it kept popping up wherever she went. Damon, however, was not happy to see Lexi. He wants the vampire to pierce his brother for more information about his relationship with Isobel. Yes, right. Damon hinted that there is more of the story to come. He tries to explain to her what happened between him and Isobel, because Elena knows he is her father (Stefan told her earlier). And an unconscious Jeremy. She cannot release them. But it is not to have. Also, in the most boring storyline of the episode, Bonnie learned more about her witch heritage from her grandmother. Damon kisses her on the forehead and, before returning the necklace, forces her to forget what he just said. Oh! - We close the episode by going back into the tomb, where a packet of blood that Damon threw against the wall, in frustration, captured and awakened at least one vampire. She hit him.
